“Cyber Violence & Gender Equality”

under the academic auspices of
Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidyalaya
 (First State Women University in North India, Institute of Corporate Industry Organising Partner)

Dr. CBS Cyber Security Services, India

Bhagat Phool Singh Mahila Vishwavidyalaya
 (under the academic auspices of BPS Women University) was established in 2008, is the first State university for women in North India that has the vision to “Empower Women with Education”. The university owes its growth to the Kanya Shiksha, that was established in 1936 by legendary reformer Bhagat Phool Singh ji at Khanpur Kalan, Sonapat. His vision and legacy was further continued by Padma Shree Sushma Devi ji who later on expanded the Gurukul. The university has more than 2000 students, 12 UGAs, 30 Faculties, 03 Institutes, 05 Centres of Excellence, 05 Polytechnic, 02 Schools and 01 OJ Regional Centre, BPSMV has a rich combination of indigenous knowledge traditions and modern technologies, such growth has 300+ acres of land area and continuously practicing “University Society Interface” by community engagement, and thus, strongly pursuing the cause of women empowerment.
