

Important Academic Events

The following events are organized for an academic year with an objective to empower the female learner through foreign language skills, critical and creative thinking skills.

Res Inductio	Res Inductio is organized at the beginning of an academic year to introduce the new learner to different activities, courses and other facilities available at the department. A competition “Regina Glossa” is conducted to encourage effective communication skills on socially relevant themes among the freshers.
Creantis Novum :	Creantis Novum is organized at the middle of the semester ( October) to promote creative and critical writing and communicative skills. The competitions are organized for Poster making, caption writing, Essay writing, story writing, versification, ex tempo speech, poem recitations etc. Selected Films from three languages German, French and Russian is also screened. Two Extension lectures are also organized.
Festum Literatio	Festum Literatio is a two days annual event organized in the second semester ( last week of February) to promote creative writing skills. Essay writing, story writing, versification, ex tempo speech, poem recitations competitions are conducted. Representatives from Cultural Centres like Russian cultural centre, Max Mueller Bhavan and Francaise Alliance or Experts from different languages are invited to deliver extension lectures. An emerging writer from literary genre are invited and workshop is organized on “Creative moments alive” to promote literary skills among the learners and the author is honored through Honeur de L’auteur.
Francophonic day ( March)	French students participate as a group at interuniversity level competitions in French literary and cultural events at University of Delhi.
Russian cultural day	Russian students participate as a group at interuniversity level competitions in Russian literary and cultural events at Russian Cultural Centre, Delhi.