

Mrs. Neetu received her B.Sc. Physics (Hon's) and M.Sc. (Physics) from MDU Rohtak. She had qualified NET in Physical Science. She is currently an Assistant Professor (T) in Physics, Department of Basic and Applied Sciences since 2019. She has experience of more than 7 years. She had taught physics in B.Tech and various courses of M.Sc. Physics (physics of electronics devices, solid state electronics, condensed matter physics, atomic and molecular physics, Computational methods and programming-1 etc.). She had published 6 research papers in various journals of international repute.